

TOMPKINS v. HOULTON BAND OF MALISEET
INDIANS, 515 A.2d 744 (Me. 1986)

Joyce TOMPKINS v. HOULTON BAND OF MALISEET INDIANS.

Supreme Judicial Court of Maine. Argued September 15, 1986.

Decided September 24, 1986.

Appeal from the Superior Court Aroostook County.

Michael Carpenter (orally), Wells, Carpenter
Hunt, Houlton, for plaintiff.

Malcolm Berman (orally), Houlton, for defendant.

Before McKUSICK, C.J., and NICHOLS, ROBERTS,
WATHEN, GLASSMAN, SCOLNIK and CLIFFORD, JJ.

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION.

The defendant's appeal from the denial of its motion to dismiss for lack of proper service of process is premature. See Garrison v. Finks, 469
A.2d 440 (Me. 1983); Hazzard v. West View Golf Club, Inc., 217 A.2d 217, 222 (Me. 1966).

The entry is:

Appeal dismissed.

All concurring.
